2022 Quilt Challenge

Theme – A Day in the Life of Sunbonnet Sue

Sue and her friends, like Overall Bill, have been known by many names. She, along with her pets and friends, have been depicted working, playing, going to school, vacationing, enjoying the holidays, and sometimes getting into trouble. Let your imagination place Sue and possibly a few friends and/or a pet on a quilt square and stitch them up to display.

Each OTQG Member is eligible to enter one quilt for the challenge. Any technique can be used such as piecework, applique, photo transfer, embroidery, collage, etc. Your imagination is your guide. Quilt must have 3 layers (backing, batting, top) held together with quilting or tying. Quilt should have a finished edge: either a binding or a facing. Quilt should be a maximum size of 24 x 24 inches. Quilts can be smaller but no less than 12 inches square. The quilt needs a sleeve for hanging and a label on the back.

Quilts need to be finished by the day of the quilt show, but the quilter needs to fill out a registration form when it becomes available. This will allow us to plan the display.

Quilt Show Primer

Our next quilt show is coming up September 17, 2022, at Central Presbyterian Church. Let's review what members can do to help make our show a success.

--Make quilts!! No quilts = no show! We hang all members' quilts and like to have something from everyone if possible. All quilts need a sleeve at least 3" wide attached to the back by sewing or pinning. We have less space than in past shows and may not be able to show all the quilts you want to show. We are working on some other ways to show all these beautiful quilts. If you have done a challenge quilt, a temperature quilt or guild Block of the Month, these will be hung.

--Sell tickets to our raffle quilt-this can be a big moneymaker for us, but we need all members to sell! See the quilt at the January meeting! Tickets will be available soon.

--Work on a committee for the show. Here is rundown of what you can do. Some jobs are day-of-show jobs, and some last a little longer. ALL members' help is needed for a successful show!

- Plan to help set up the show and take it down-we need lots of help for this!!
- Raffle Quilt-volunteers to sell tickets at the show.
- Publicity- This committee sends notices to nearby guilds, quilt magazines, quilting websites, and quilt shops. They also produce a poster to distribute and anything else they think will promote the show. Contacts with the newspapers and TV and radio stations are desirable as well. NEED A CHAIRPERSON!
- Vendor Mall- Needed are people to help at set up and during the show, acting as helpers and hostesses for the vendors.
- Hospitality- Volunteer to be a white glove hostess.
- Quilt Registration- Help register the quilts during set up and return the quilts at takedown.
- Admissions- Volunteer to staff the admission tables the day of the show. NEED A CHAIRPERSON!

Trading Post- Donate your extra fabric, patterns, books, sewing related treasures. This is a very successful part of the show. Help set up the Trading Post the night before the show or staff the checkout table during the show. Diane Stott has volunteered to take charge of the Trading Post. Thank you, Diane! She will take donations ahead of time.

Sign-up sheets will be available starting in April. Save the date of September 16-17, 2022 to help make this the best show yet! Contact Andrea Schmidt, 449-4123, with questions or to volunteer.
